Shirley
Dear ~~Mayor~~ Franklin:

It is my understanding that James T. Middlebrooks has submitted his name to be considered for the vacant position on the City of Atlanta's Civil Service Board. I wholeheartedly support his interest and ask for your favorable response to his request for appointment.

I have known Mr. Middlebrooks and his wife Gwendolyn since high school and know that he will bring a high level of integrity to the Civil Service Board. He has performed and/or managed the functions of EEO Defense, Arbitration, Mediation, and Conciliation for the Southeast Area of the United States Postal Service for 20 years in addition to contract negotiations, and workforce strategy development. His qualifications are extensive in the area of labor and employee relations which will bring an increased level of experience to this board.

Should you need any additional information, please do not hesitate to let me know how I can be helpful.

Sincerely,

Hattie B. Dorsey

PRIMARY ASSIGNMENT (1988-2001):

I oversaw and managed, through an immediate staff of eight direct reports, the following major functions for the Atlanta Performance Cluster, which was composed of over 15,000 employees, with a budget in excess of 1.1 billion dollars; Equal Employment activities, Labor Relations, Advocacy, Employee Assistance Program, Injury Compensation, Safety and Health, Medical Units and Consultant to the Performance Cluster Staff.

SPECIAL PROJECT (2000-2001):

I worked to ensure the installation of Integrated Resources Management (IRM) for the national office. The focus of IRM was to reduce costs associated with absenteeism in all forms, occupational, non-occupational, Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and Reasonable Accommodation through a Resource Management Database. The database held all attendance information on every employee within the performance Cluster through an interactive software application designed to automate manual tracking of employee absences.

I worked on a multitude of other special projects and details during my career ranging from Regional Director of Human Resources, to U.S. Postal Service Team Leader for Priority Mail Processing Center (PMPC) Transition from Emery Worldwide Airlines.
